

International days 2021@Campus Antwerp

2 & 3 March 2021

Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology

Program March 2, 2021

- 9.15 Welcome & Introduction, Peter De Graef, Head Unit People & Health
- 9.30 - 10.30 Rudi Vranckx, correspondent at VRT and Broadcast Media Consultant
De impact van internationale conflicten op de rest van de wereld
- 11.15 - 12.15 Walter Zinzen, former VRT icon and Africa expert
Het andere Afrika
- 12.30 - 13.30 Ruffa Lagria, Thomas More
Online cooking workshop
- 13.45 - 14.45 Selma Saad, Saint-Joseph University, Lebanon
Speech disfluencies in bilingual speakers
- 15.00 - 16.00 Terhi Hautala, University of Oulu, Finland
Language and communication in Aging
- 16.00 Plenary Closure

Program March 3, 2021

9.00 Welcome & Introduction, Kirsten Schraeyen, International coordinator, Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology

9.15 - 12.00 International practices of Speech-Language Pathology & Audiology
Four interactive parallel sessions (delivered twice) on different SLP themes, presented by international SLP experts.

HELP, my classroom is too noisy!

Annelies Labaere, Wendy D'haenens, Marjolein Van Dessel (Thomas More)
Kevin Yuen, Anna Kham (The Education University of Hong Kong)

How, as a speech-language therapist, do you examine an adult after an acquired brain injury?

Dorien Vandendorre, Ineke Wilssens, Catherine Cornette, Melissa Konings (Thomas More)
Judith Damian (University Santo Tomas, the Philippines)
Lorinda Kwan (The Education University of Hong Kong)

Stuttering and being bullied at school

Sabine Van Eerdenbrugh, Mark Meersman (Thomas More)
Contributors from several European and non-European partner institutes

Shared book reading and vocabulary development

Els Geypen, An Lowette (Thomas More)
Carmen Ooi (The Education University of Hong Kong)
Czarina Maximo (University Santo Tomas, the Philippines)

12.00 - 12.15 Plenary round up